Arrival in Kelowna latest the day before your heliski program starts is required, as CMH bus transfer is leaving Four Points Sheraton in the morning on the start day of your trip. CMH regular bus transfer is leaving Galena in the afternoon of the final day, allowing heli-skiing in the morning. Departure flights should therefore be booked the day after final day of your trip.*

BUS TRANSFER

If you plan to pre heliski, you need to organize another transportation option, contact us for reservation or recommendation.

I would like to get on CMH Bus transfer: YES / NO

Or, I am driving myself to the helipad/area: YES / NO

If pre-heliskiing, please write name of booked hotel: _____

*For departure flight on the final heliski day, you can make a reservation for an early transfer from the lodge in the morning, which will be charged to your trip bill (extras at the ski area) with CAD 235 + tax per person. You will not be able to ski in the morning on you last day. Please note below if this transfer is required. The transfer shall be reconfirmed to CMH area manager upon arrival at the lodge. Please note that arrival to Kelowna from the heliski area could be delayed by difficult driving conditions. Therefore make sure your return flight ticket can be rebooked. CMH or CMH Nordic is not responsible for any additional costs if you miss the flight.

Early departure transfer from CMH ski area: YES / NO

How do you classify yourself in technical skiing ability? Please check one of the following options:

A

Black Runs: No problem.

Double Black Runs: No problem.

Off Piste/Powder: Lots of powder and varied terrain experience.

Very confident skiing steep, tight tree runs, rarely falling.

Pace of the Day: Long pitches of fast skiing with little or no stopping.

B

Black Runs: No problem.

Double Black Runs: No problem.

Double Black Runs: Often ski them

Off Piste/Powder: Enjoy powder and seek it out whenever possible. Feel comfortable skiing in the trees without difficulty.

Pace of the Day: Longer pitches of steady skiing with minimal stops for rest.

C

Blue Runs: Routinely ski them.

Black Runs: Enjoy the challenge, when conditions are right.

Double Black Runs: Occasionally ski when conditions are right.

Off Piste/Powder: Tried the bowls on a powder day with reasonable success. Tree skiing is a challenge, but manageable.

Pace of the Day: Shorter pitches of skiing at a moderate pace, stopping occasionally for rest

D Powder Introduction Recommended*

Blue Runs: Skit them with little trouble doing parallel turns down the fall line.

Black Runs: Occasionally skit hem.

Double Black Runs: Can get down but not with a lot of style.

Off Piste/Powder: Minimal experience skiing in different snow conditions, powder and trees.

Pace of the Day: Shorter pitches of skiing at a relaxed pace; lots of stops for rest, ski tips and pictures.

*Powder Introduction programs are offered on various dates throughout the season

Which of the following descriptions would match your preferred pace of skiing each day?

Please check one of the following options:

Aggressive / Fast Moderate

Strong / Steady Relaxed

How do you intend to enjoy the powder snow during your CMH Trip?

Please check one of the following options:

Ski / Snowboard / Telemark Ski

Ski & Snowboard depending, upon the day/conditions

Please Note: If you've overestimated your ability or fitness and can't keep up with your group, CMH reserve the right to ask you to stay at the lodge or leave the area before your trip ends.

While CMH will make every effort to have you share the same ski group as your friends, CMH cannot provide a guarantee. Groups are compiled through a variety of factors such as ability, pace preference, total group weight etc.
